25 FEB - 25 MAR 2014

8 PM - 9 PM

Cost

$75 / $60 Members

Instructor

Dr. David Marcus

Description

Last year, Dr. Marcus led a 14-person community music ensemble in a concert during Alif's Atlanta Arab Festival - violin, flute, oud, darbouka, riqq, cello, bass, singers, and dancers. The audience sang and danced with us.

This year, we are expanding the opportunity, to interested musicians and singers. 5 Tuesday night rehearsals, culminating in a concert on Saturday night, March 29th.

This class welcomes singers, violinists, players of flute, percussionists, cello, bass, accordion, keyboard, nay, and other Middle Eastern instruments. It will include exposure to Arabic rhythms, scales, lyrics, and modes of improvisation, as well as iconic musicians of the Arab world, such as Fairouz and Omm Kalthoum.
